Dedication

To Supt. Charles M. Rogers, who during the past eighteen years has so ably served the schools of Amarillo as teacher, principal, supervisor, and superintendent, we, the La Airosa staff of 1940, dedicate this book. Through his untiring efforts in guiding the Amarillo schools toward greater growth and efficiency, through his sincere devotion to the best interests of our schools, and through his high ideals, he has helped to bring renown to our school system, to enrich our educational program, and to bring greater opportunities into our school life.

A. H. S.! Oh, A. H. S!
We'll sing your praise tonight,
To let you know where'er we go
For Black and Gold we'll fight.

We'll sing your worth o'er all the earth—
Of schools you are the best.
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oh, A. H. S.!

Touchdown Song

We want a touchdown!
Hear them sing
We want a touchdown,
That's the thing,
Just let some great big bruiser
Husky and tall, carry the ball

In no time at all
We'll have a touchdown,
And when it's over
Let us hear you make some noise.
S-A-N-D-I-E-S
We want a touchdown, boys!

Our Boys Gonna Shine Tonite

Here we come, two by two—
Our boys gonna shine tonite.
You'll be blue when we get thru—
Our boys gonna shine tonite.

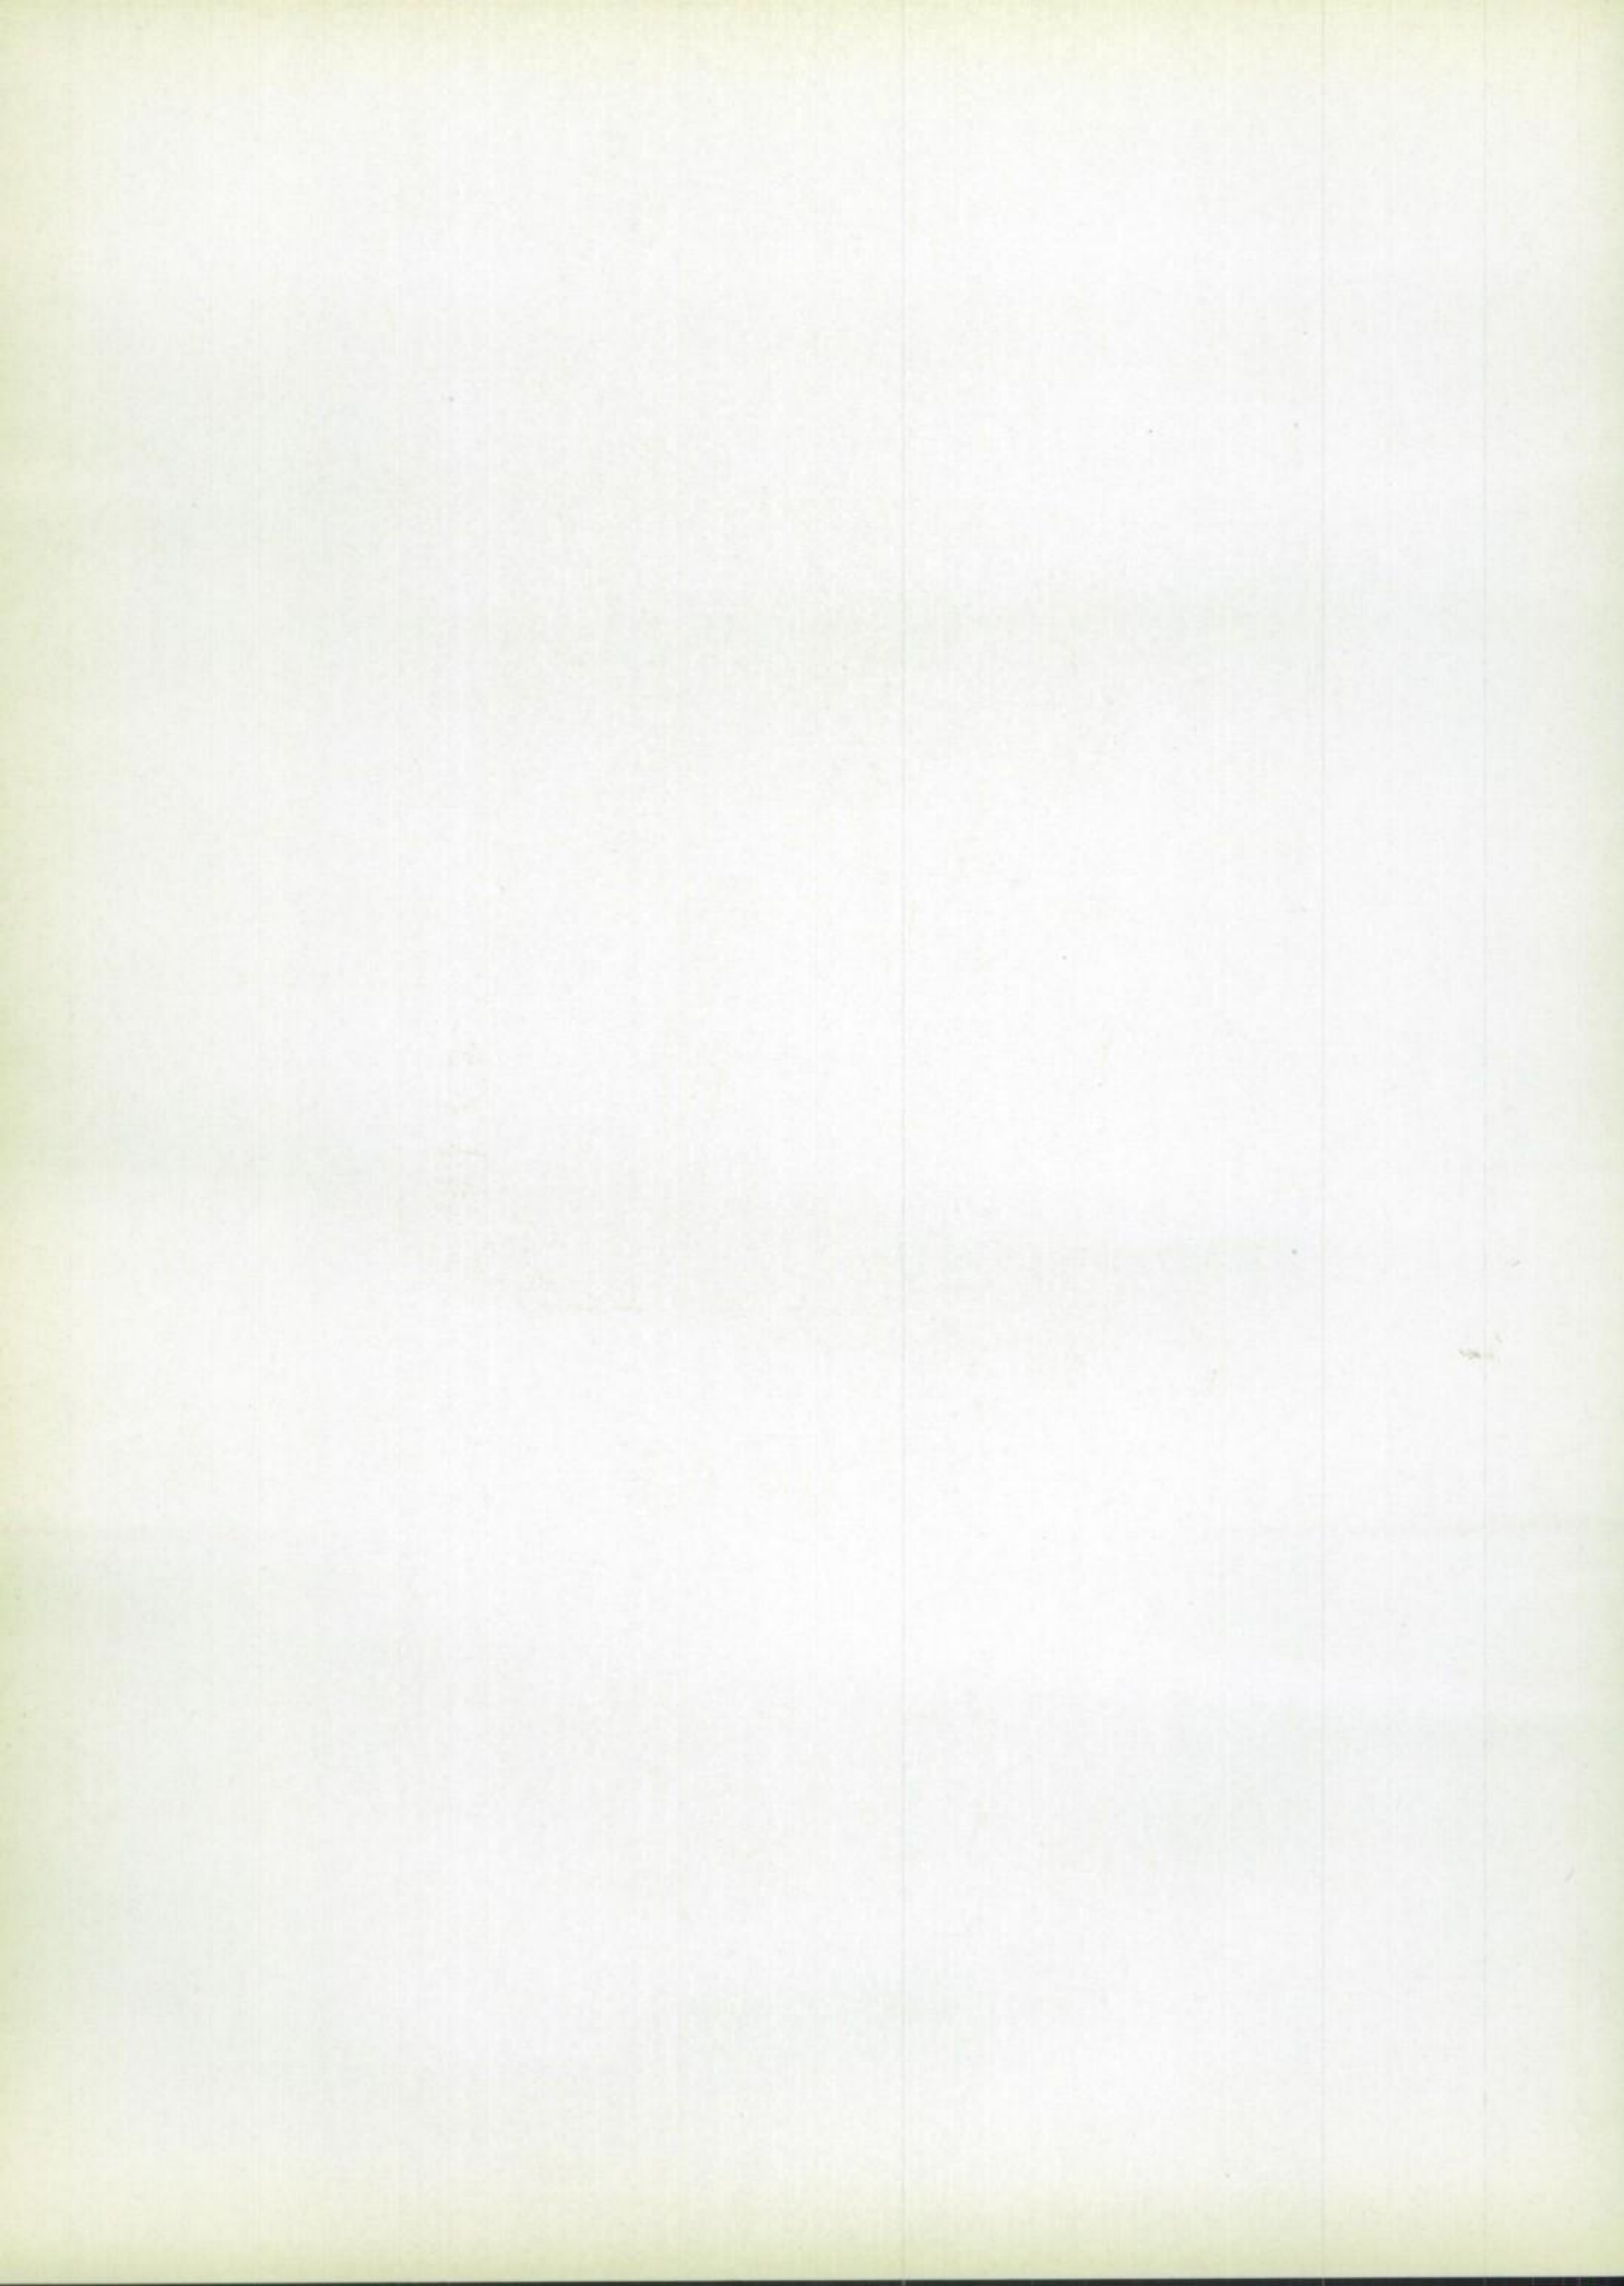

Chorus

I know it! Indeed, I know it, brother!
I know it! Whee!
Our boys gonna shine tonite!

Sandie spirit never dies—
Our boys gonna shine tonite.
Hit 'em with your elbow, sock
'em in the eye
Our boys gonna shine tonite.

The Sandstorm

AMARILLO HIGH SCHOOL, AMARILLO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1940

The members of the Sandstorm staff pictured above are, left to right, Dorris Collie, assistant editor, Charles A. Hertel, editorial sponsor, Dewrene Godsey and Mildred Sturch, co-editors.

Hertel Has Many Activities

With six year's experience as sponsor of a high school paper, Charles A. Hertel this year launched the Sandstorm on its eleventh year of recording news of school events, progress, and promotion of school spirit.

Coming here from Breckenridge, he piloted the Sandstorm through one of the most successful years in its history, it being judged the best high school paper in the Panhandle and one of ten all-state papers.

Back of Mr. Hertel's capability lie many outstanding achievements. He graduated as valedictorian of his class in 1928 from Giddings High School, Giddings, Texas, where he was also president of the Senior Class and editor of the Traveler, the school paper. Besides these, he was on both the tennis and debate teams, and engaged in extemporaneous speaking. Still, he somehow found time to play a saxophone in the high school orchestra, and was on the football squad one year.

Upon finishing high school, Mr. Hertel entered the University of Texas, where he majored in journalism and received his B. J. degree in 1932. For his outstanding activities in the journalism field, he was elected to Sigma Delta Chi, honorary and professional journalistic fraternity. He played his saxophone in the Longhorn Band one year.

Since graduating from college, he has studied for two summers at the University of Colorado at Boulder, and anticipates receiving his M. A. degree next summer.

Swimming and tennis are just about tops on his list of diversions, and he also enjoys an occasional game of bridge.

With all these accomplishments, he still has a goal toward which he is striving; and that is to write a novel. He has already had several articles of literary work published.

Staff Members

Sandstorm Takes All-State Honors

The Austin High Maroon was judged the best weekly high school paper in Texas by the Texas High School Press Association which met in convention at Texas State College for Women in December.

Eight other Texas high school weeklies were listed as All Texas. Among them was the Sandstorm.

SANDSTORM TAKES TOP PLACE IN DISTRICT

The Sandstorm has been judged the best printed high school paper of West Texas for 1939 by the West Texas Scholastic Press Clinic, sponsored by the Journalism Department of Texas Technological College, Lubbock. The announcement was made in a letter to the Sandstorm staff this week.

Five members of the staff accompanied by Charles A. Hertel, left this morning to attend the third annual convention at Lubbock, where they will receive the first place award.

Members of the staff attending the convention are Mildred Sturch, Dewrene Godsey, co-editors, Dorris Collie, assistant editor, Dick Mayer, circulation manager, and Bernice Scarborough, business manager.

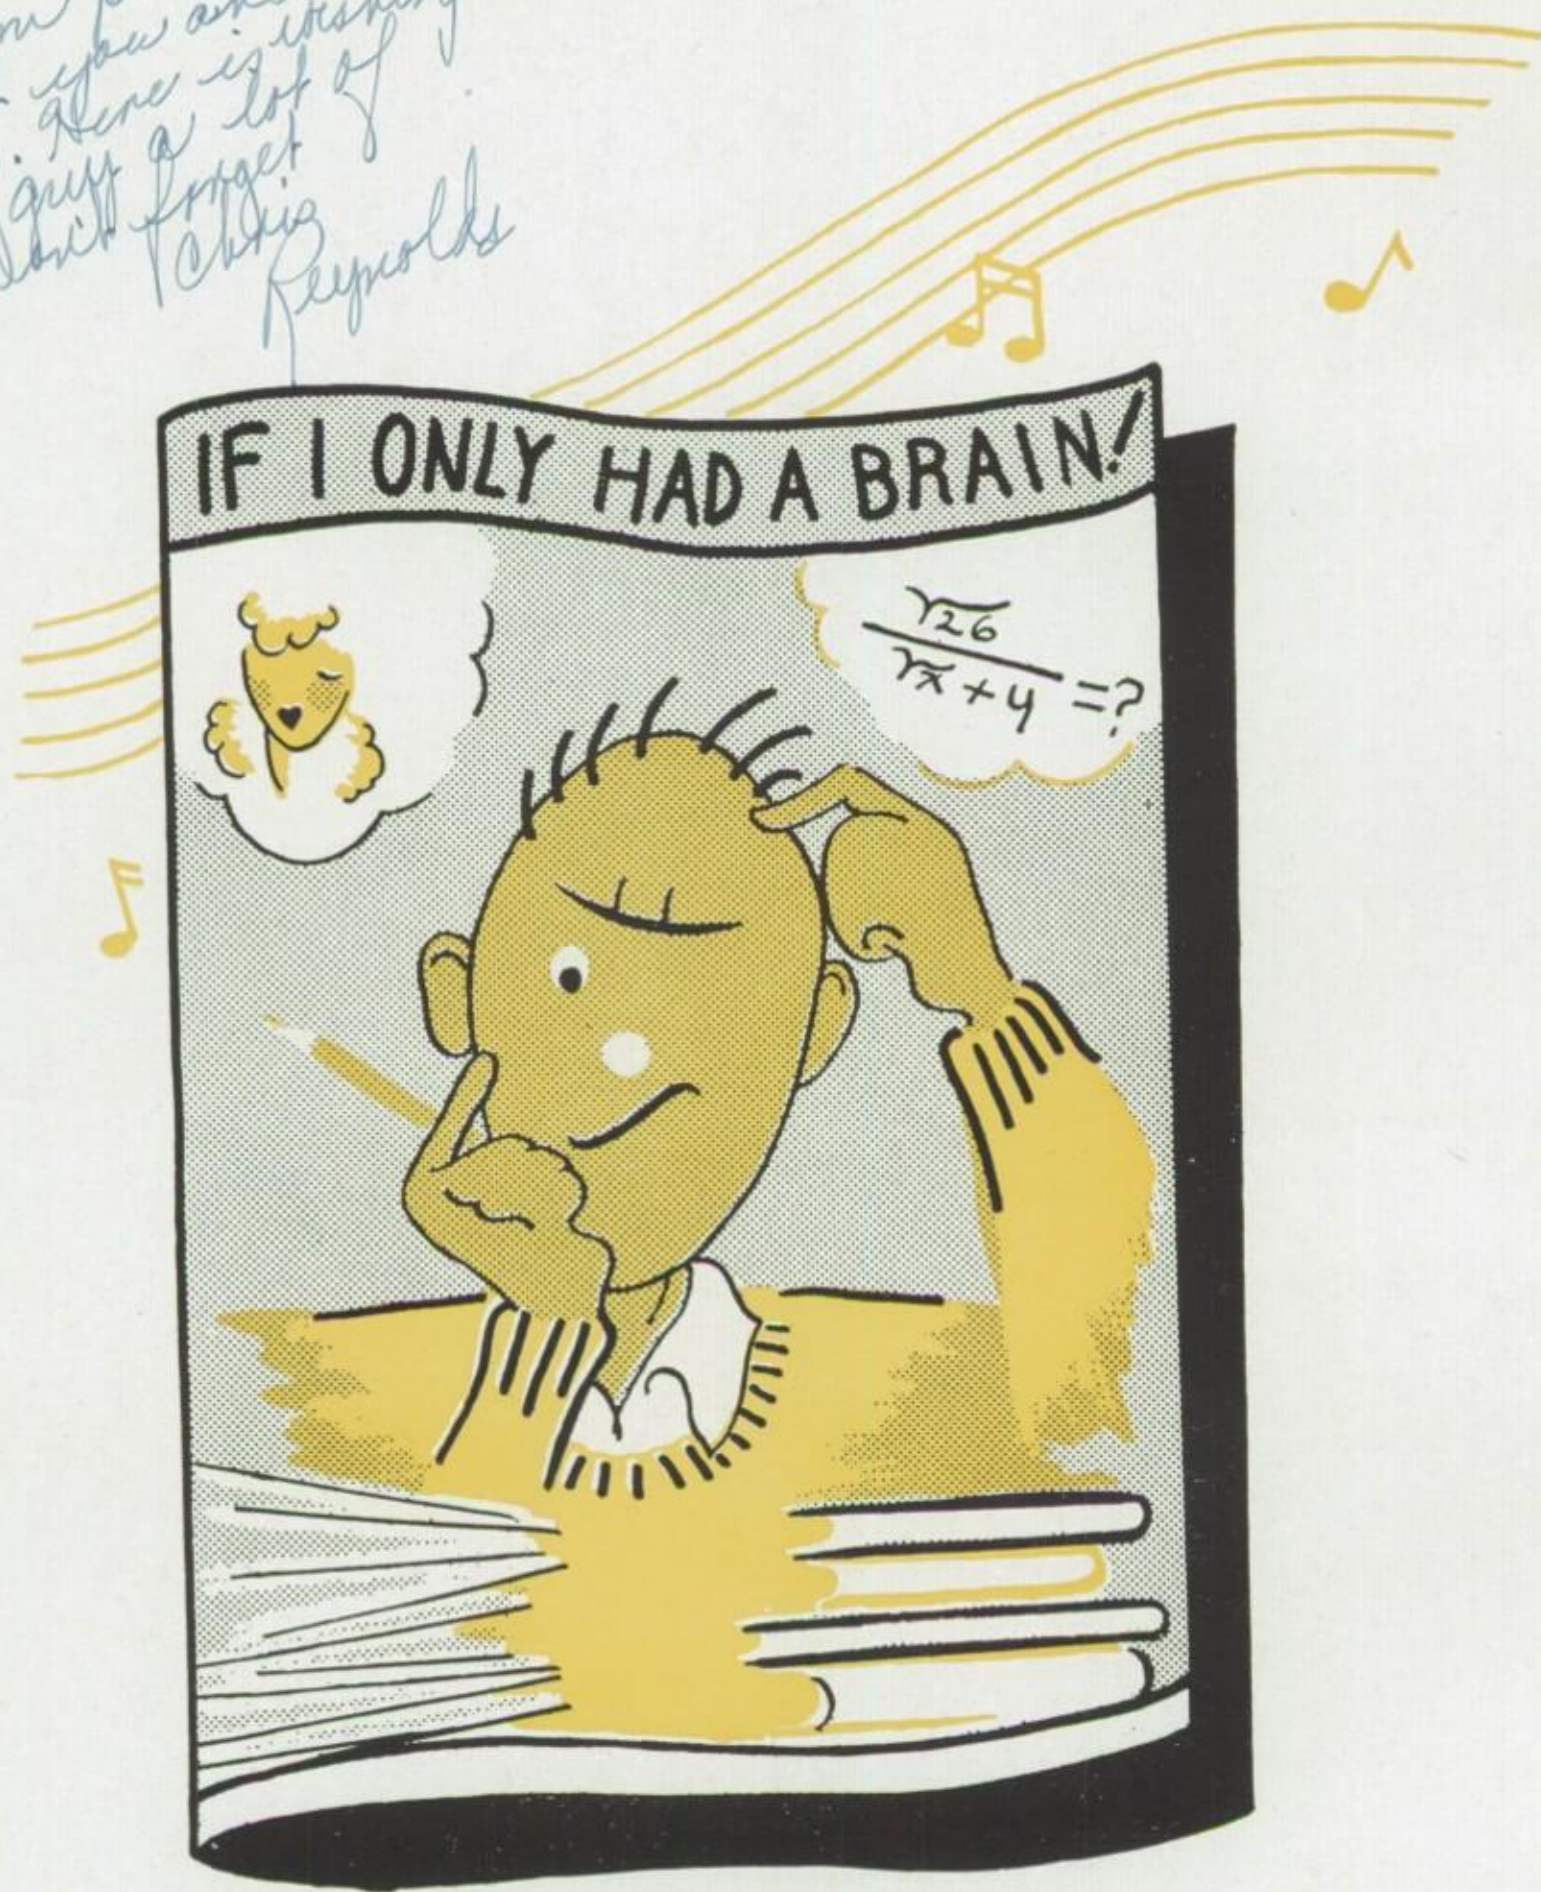

Shown above are some of the members of the business staff of the Sandstorm. The business sponsor is V. R. Howard.

We grave and reverend Seniors,
Who thought the years so slow
We spent in acquisition
Of things we had to know,
Are filled with wild excitement;
At last the goal is won.
We gaze in admiration
Upon the work we've done.
The courses we have taken,
The stiff exams, we've passed
Would indicate intelligence;
With wonder we're aghast.

The faculty, they tell us,
Are equally surprised,
For when they found us passing
They scarce believed their eyes.
Perhaps it was their wisdom
That dragged us up to grade,
And so we're saying "Thank you,"
For good advice and aid.
How often we have counted
The time till holidays,
And wished the hours were shorter
In education's ways!

SANDIE LETTERMEN

ANDREWS, BILL—Co-Captain

Left halfback—This was Bill's third year on the squad, lettering in '38. Was selected on the All-District team.

GILL, CHARLIE—Captain

Guard—Lettered as a regular guard in '38. He was on the All-District team and has been selected to play in the All-Star game this summer.

BOYTER, R. A.

Right end—Second year as a letterman. The perfect type of boy as a trainer and hard worker. He would be a very valuable man next fall but the new age limit catches him.

CAZZELL, DICK

Right tackle—Was a Yannigan in '38. Played some very good games. Probably his best was against Plainview. Will not be back next year.

CLARK, CLYDE

Left halfback—Although small, Clark packed a lot of power in his drive. Handicapped by an injury in mid-season, he never fully recovered his early form, but will have the '40 season to show what he can do.

GREATHOUSE, MYRLE

Blocking back—The "find" of the '38 season. With no previous experience, this boy made the starting line-up and has prospects for a great season in '40.

HALE, BILLY

Center—made a job as regular tackle in '38 despite his size. Shifted back to center this fall, he played steady and reliable ball.

HARLOW, HAROLD

Tailback—Only a squad man in '38. Great things are to be expected from him in '40.

HILL, DICK

Right tackle—Hill was a squad man in '38 and alternated in two positions—left guard and right tackle on this year's team.

JOHNSON, M. T.

Tailback—"Slugger" developed fast after a slow beginning until he was alternating at his position. He should be a great part of next year's team.

KILE, RICHARD

Left tackle—A Yannigan in '37, Kile was on the '38 squad but failed to letter. Changed back to the line this fall, he played several good games.

MOSS, TED

Right guard—His second year on the squad, Ted lettered this season as a regular. He should be a power in next year's club.

PAGE, FRED

Left guard—Fred was a Yannigan in '38 and played some good ball this year. With a year's added experience and a few more pounds, he should be ready for '40.

PAYNE, OTTO

Right halfback—Payne played his first football on the Yannigans in '38. He should be ready for another great season.

PLANT, HESTER

Blocking back—The lightest man on the squad but also possessed a fighting heart as big as any.

REDUS, WILLIAM

Left end—A year on the Yannigans made Scud ready for the '39 season, and he held his position in spite of serious competition.

WOOTEN, DUB

Right end—Switched about from one end to the other, Dub also found time to play blocking back for part of the time. He will be back for another year.

RESERVES

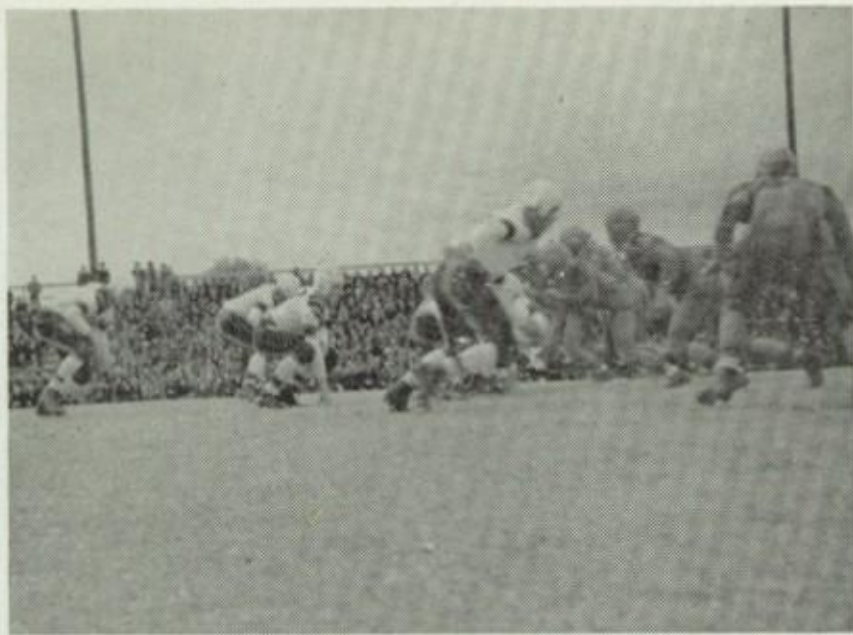

TOP ROW—Boone Baker, back; Burrell Collins, guard; Hudson Edwards, end; Benny Files, back; Bob Izzard, guard.

MIDDLE ROW—Don Moore, center; Gene Noland, center; Roy Priolo, tackle; Elmer Smith, back; Gene Sutton, tackle.

SPEECH ARTS ACTIVITIES

The Speech Department of Amarillo High School is active in both curricula and extra-curricula affairs. The instructors are Miss Oretha Jane Cornelius, Miss Peggy Jane Woodruff, and Mr. Vernon Howard. A total of eleven classes are taught in Fundamentals of Speech 4B, Public Speaking 4A, and Dramatics 4A. These classes get additional speech experience in the opening exercises over the Public Address System each day, in weekly school radio programs, and assembly programs.

The Speech Department sponsors extra-curricula activities in Debating, Declamation, Extemporaneous, and One-Act Play Contests. The students representing the school in the Public Speaking contests made trips to Speech Tournaments at Waco, Lubbock, Levelland, Abilene, and to the Interscholastic League Meets. The debaters were: Howard Fisher, Bill Dickson, Bill Seiber, Kenneth Wheatley, Dick Lieurance, Barbara Scott, and Helen Dutton. Extemporaneous Speakers were: Estel Etheridge, Bobbie Izzard, Dorothy Hoover, and Margaret Norman. The Declaimers were: Riley Jones, Flave Pledger, Scharleen Barker, and Peggy Stack.

The Forensic Societies give the students practice in parliamentary procedure and sponsor the traditional Philomathean-Forum Debate for the Lion's Club Cup. This annual event was held in assembly March 28 with the President of the Lion's Club presiding. The members of the Forensic Societies wore their Philo and Forum badges and lustily applauded the debate team representing their organization. The Presidents of the various Forensic Societies throughout the year were Riley Jones, Ida Lou Nesbitt, Winette DeGrassi, Florence Neely, Doris Gale Crownover, Alice O'Bryan, Patricia Foster, Janice Jones, Billy Hale, Dorothy Hawkins, Bill Andrews, Betty Lamb, Dick Lieurance, Pat Hopkins, W. C. McClish, Dick Jones, Betty Jean Mead, W. C. Wren, Fern Brannen, and David Cole.

The Thespian Dramatic Society presented two plays in assembly the first semester. "Wild Hobby Horses" was directed by Dorris Collie. The cast included Robert Lofgren, Paula Edquist, William Sieber, Jack Marlatt, Evelyn Bailey, Wanda Wanser, and Linnie Sue Ashby.

"The Castle of Mr. Simpson" was directed by Doris Gale Crownover, and the cast included Finley Nelson, Lucille Barnes, Laura Mae Smith, Billie Silverman, Prestene Sullivan, J. Roy Smith, and Tom Cole.

The Dramatics classes selected "Mansions" for the contest play. The cast and understudies included Ernestine Mercer, Butonne Davis, Doris Gale Crownover, Billie Bethune, Leslie Willson, and Denny Plumlee.

For Senior Day, May 17, three one-act plays were given, two of which were "The Happy Journey" with a cast of Pat Hopkins, Ellen Clark, Frances Chance, Gib Howard, Mary Jo Griffin, and Truman Thurston, and "Five for Bad Luck" with Dora Kenyon, Carolyn Williams, Scharleen Barker, Helen McKinley, Bill Andrews, Billy Hale, Tom Cole, and Dick Jones.

Some of the plays presented by the Dramatic classes for assembly were "Moonshine," "The Man in the Bowler Hat," "His First Date," "Highness," "The High Heart," "Strange Road," and "The Tangled Web."

"MILLERS OF MERIT"

We editors may dig and toil
Till our fingertips are sore,
But some poor fish is sure to say,
"I've heard that joke before."

Tom C.: Pardon me, but you look like Helen Black.
Carolyn W.: Oh, dear me, I don't look half so bad in white.

June (watching huddle on field): They're at it again. I do hope Harold won't repeat that joke I told him last night.

Dick J.: "I don't see how you can afford to take so many girls to expensive restaurants."
Dawson B.: "That's easy; I always ask each girl, just before we go in, if she hasn't been putting on weight."

Margaret C.: Why do you refer to Mr. Berg as 'the ladder'?
Emma L. S.: Because no one passes under him.

Jack S.: Loan me five bucks?
Truman V.: Sorry, but I have only $4.75.

The teacher was trying to impress on the children how important had been the discovery of the law of gravitation.

"Sir Isaac Newton was sitting on the ground looking at a tree. An apple fell on his head and from that he discovered gravitation. Just think, children. Isn't that wonderful?"

Don C.: Yes'm, an' if he had been sitting in the school lookin' at his books, he wouldn't have discovered nothin'.

After a terrific struggle, a law student finally finished his examination paper, and then at the end wrote: "Dear Professor: If you sell any of my answers to the funny papers, I expect a split of 50-50 with me."

A teacher was giving his class a lecture on charity. "Aubrey," he said, "if I saw a boy beating a donkey, and I stopped him from doing so, what virtue should I be showing?"

Aubrey F.: "Brotherly love."

Little Lillie T., in town with her mother, caught sight of a bald-headed man.

"Oh, mother," she exclaimed, "just see that man! He hasn't a hair on his head. Isn't that sad?"

Eleanor F.: You've had it.

Miss Feierabend: What is a mummy?

B. L. M.: Please, miss, a pickled queen.

Math Prof: If there are forty-eight states in the Union, and superheated steam equals the distance from Bombay to Paris, what is my age?

Soph: Forty-four, sir.

Prof: Correct, and how did you prove that?

Soph: Well, I have a brother who is twenty-two and he is only half nuts.

We Take Off Our Hats To LA AIROSA

Year after year, this splendid yearbook depicts a fresh, interesting, complete panorama of school life at A.H.S. The sponsors and staff of the LA AIROSA of 1940 are to be commended particularly on the fine annual they have achieved.

It has been our privilege and pleasure to produce the engravings for La Airosa since 1932.
